

Roanoke Postal Employees' Federal Credit Union

Alexander Scholarship 2009

Named in honor of two outstanding Credit Union pioneers, Alec and Doris Alexander, we're delighted to offer this exceptional opportunity to assist members in their higher education endeavors.

This husband and wife spent many years building our Credit Union with a sound foundation of quality member service and financial integrity that all members of Roanoke Postal Employees' FCU still enjoy today.

Members interested in seeking higher education and meeting the eligibility requirements may apply. Ten $1,000 scholarships will be awarded at the Annual Meeting Sunday, October 4, 2009.

REGULATIONS

1. Award money must be used for university, college or technical/vocational school tuition.
2. Recipients may accept other college scholarship assistance in addition to this award.
3. If a recipient suffers certified serious illness, the scholarship will be held in abeyance for not more than one year.
4. If for any reason the recipient discontinues studies, the student must notify RPEFCU within 10 days. At such time eligibility for receiving the scholarship funds will be determined by the Alexander Scholarship Committee. Additionally, the recipient may be held responsible for refunding any scholarship monies lost due to class withdrawal or an incomplete school year.
5. If the recipient does not attend school within a 12-month period following the date of the award, the scholarship will be withdrawn and awarded to an alternate applicant(s).
6. Award money will be deposited with the school of the recipient's choice and credited to the student's account to be drawn upon under the school rules established for handling scholarship funds. The scholarship recipient must provide the Roanoke Postal Employees' Credit Union with a copy of the tuition bill in order for funds to be disbursed to the school.
7. Alexander Scholarship recipients and applicants may re-apply every year that the award is available, but only one award per applicant per calendar year is permitted.
8. All information submitted remains strictly confidential and property of Roanoke Postal Employees' Credit Union.
9. Applicants' names will not be revealed to the judges during their review of the applications.
